

The IUPHAR-Education Section, in collaboration with the SASBCP and Toxicology SA invite you to attend a regional (Africa) workshop:

Developing authentic assessment for competence-based pharmacology curricula

Tuesday, 1st September 2015 9:00 – 12:00

Facilitator: Prof PK Rangachari

Workshop Registration closes on

Monday 17th August 2015. Register Here

*Registration includes: workshop materials, morning tea/coffee and lunch. In addition, paid-up participants are invited to attend Professor Rangachari's keynote address on Monday 31st August at 9:00am. Participants registered for the full SASBCP/ToxSA conference may attend this workshop at no further cost. Parking at the venue is free.

Registration does not include: Travel, Accommodation, local transportation, or attendance at any non-education session of the conference. Contact witsphar15@gmail.com for more information.

For information on the full conference: <http://sites.google.com/site/witspharmacologyconference2015/>

Workshop registration is included in the full conference price if attending all 3 days.

Keynote Address: The Pipeline for Producing Pluripotent Pharmacologists: Promises and Pitfalls.

Prof PK Rangachari, (McMaster University, Canada)

Monday, 31st August 2015 9:00 – 10:30

SASBCP & TOXSA 2015
Facing the pharmacological future

Professor Rangachari's participation is supported by the National Research Foundation Knowledge Interchange and Collaboration Grant